You’re invited! Come join our team dedicated to green building solutions!

A MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN with Plasti-Fab Ltd. will repair and maintain plant equipment, physical structures and fixtures including machinery, boilers, equipment, pipe, and electrical systems by performing the following duties:

Position Responsibilities:

- Operate and inspect facility support equipment on an ongoing basis to ensure efficient and accurate operations
- Building maintenance as required by self or coordination of contractors
- Assure that work assignments are carried out in accordance with all OSHA and Plasti-Fab safety programs procedures, standards and policies and are completed safely, accurately and by the deadlines
- Maintain and monitor the high-pressure boiler for safe and efficient operation of manufacturing process
- Read schematics and diagrams to accurately troubleshoot electrical, wiring, and building issues, using a diagram/schematic, perform the steps in effective troubleshooting

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Experience working in a maintenance manufacturing capacity
- Computer skills
- Mechanical knowledge of various processes
- Class 2B boilers license is required for this position. Class 1B preferred. If not already obtained, must be willing to obtain
- Forklift License
- Working knowledge of PLC’s/Hydraulics/Air and Electrical systems

Benefits!! Paid holidays, 401k, medical, vacation and sick time off, profit sharing, and MORE. Wage will be commensurate with experience.

Interested candidates can submit cover letter and resume to HR @ pfbamerica.com. We want to hear from you!

Plasti-Fab® EPS Product Solutions, a division of PFB Corp (tse: PFB) is a leader in the EPS manufacturing industry, producing a variety of energy efficient insulating building materials and systems, and also EPS/foam Packaging Solutions. Check us out! https://www.plastifab.com/ or @PlastiFab on Twitter.

Job Type: Full-time